OBECHCHAIN MAY BE CALLED UP BEFORE GRAND JURY SOON

DEPUTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY SPRINGS NEW ANGLE IN CASE.

INTERVIEW CAUSE Assertion "Real Criminal" Would be Produced Starts New Line of Action.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
LOS ANGELES.—Ralph B. Obenchain, former husband of Mrs. Madalynn Obenchain, charged with Arthur C. Burch, with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, may be called before the Los Angeles county grand jury to tell what, if anything, he knows of the case.

This was stated Friday by Deputy District Attorney Keyes, following of publication of interviews with Obenchain in which the latter was quoted as saying the innocence of the accused would be established and the "real criminal" produced within five days.

"Obenchain knows who killed Kennedy, the grand jury as well as the district attorney's office would like to know also," Keyes said.

The deputy district attorney said that Obenchain is an attorney for Mrs. Obenchain would not in his opinion, preclude his being called before the grand jury.

Will Act on Evidence
Malcolm McLaren, chief investigator for the district attorney's office, late Thursday night commented on Obenchain's statement that the man who killed J. Belton Kennedy here, Aug. 3, would be in jail by Sunday.

"But," he added, "any theory of the case must provide for Arthur C. Burch and Mrs. Madalynn Obenchain, now accused. The facts show too strong a case against them to be disregarded."

Coincidence with this statement, it was announced by Deputy District Attorney Keyes, that the prosecution had examined two witnesses late Thursday and added that the case against the two prisoners, recently indicted, was becoming stronger every day.

Auto Theft Eliminated
Mr. McLaren said this morning that while his office had been working on the theft of an automobile, stolen on the night of the murder and later recovered at Santa Monica, he considered the automobile and the thief, for whom investigators sent out advance instructions along the Salt Lake railroad asking apprehension Thursday, had been eliminated as a pertinent factor in the case.

But, Thursday the man might have been one of the two "for-eggners" who, Mrs. Obenchain told authorities, had brushed by her in the Beverly Glen shortly after the shooting of her fiancé.

A Novel With No Tiresome Parts to Skip

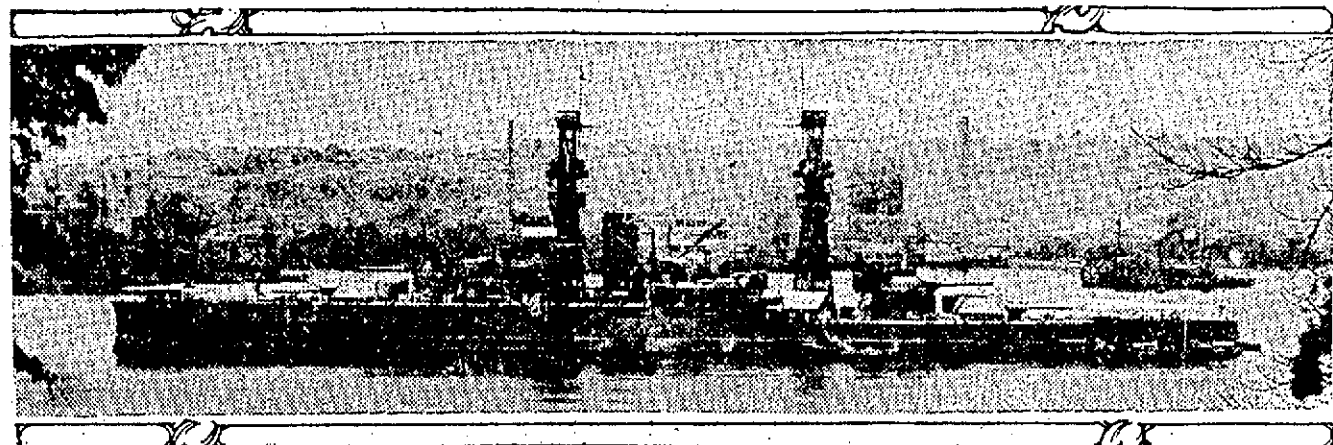

People who read novels generally make a long jump when they come to a descriptive passage or an analysis of emotions and where the dialog is resumed.

One reason why the novels by Marion Rubincam are so popular is that somebody is saying or doing something all the time. Dialog and action go hand in hand and both keep moving.

"The Love Pendulum" is the most vividly intense love story of the year.

MOVE TO PURCHASE UTILITY STOPPED

Milton Township Scores Victory in New Order from Judge Grimm.

Decision of F. C. Burpee, court commissioner, in granting a preliminary injunction to stop proceedings of Milton township to purchase its water plant, is upheld by Judge George Grimm in a decision and order given Friday on the defendant's motion to vacate the injunction.

The ruling is taken as a victory for the town of Milton which in January, 1920, voted to buy the property of the McGowan Water Light & Power company, which on July 1, 1921, by a vote of 145 to 44, elected to abandon plans for the proposed purchase.

A preliminary injunction to stop the proceedings before the circuit court was granted by Commissioner Burpee to the town of Milton, May 11, 1921. The McGowan company later made a motion to Judge Grimm that this injunction be vacated. The judge's decision denies this motion.

Jeffrey, Mount, Oestrich, Avery & Wood are representing Milton township in the proceedings with the McGowan & Sollen, Madison, appearing for the public utility. Members of the Milton town board involved are John A. Paul, chairman, H. S. Green and W. E. McBride.

It is explained that the voters, after deciding to buy the plant, suffered a change of heart when they discovered the only source of water supply was 150 feet of the well for many years and has known who owned it. The company is willing to lease the well to the township, the defense says.

That this was only a false excuse to escape buying the plant is the opinion of the McGowan company which says Mr. Paul himself has lived within 150 feet of the well for many years and has known who owned it. The company is willing to lease the well to the township, the defense says.

Singer notified a guide in the park by telegram to start the search for Heller. The pigeon set a record of long distance flying, as the park is 2,400 miles from New York City.

Heller has travelled for many years and visited nearly all parts of the world. He was a member of the Roosevelt expeditionary force that went to Africa in 1909. He is a naturalist and author.

Clamping Lid on New York Booze Runners

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]
New York.—New York is due for the worst session of ardity in its history. It was predicted by State Prohibition Director Hart.

"An order for the withdrawal of Permits B and the more drastic regulation of Permits B will clamp the lid on tighter," said Hart "and, as far as I am concerned, the lid will stay on."

Permits B are for wholesalers and are to be entirely withdrawn and not renewed. Permits B regulate importers, and these importers will not be permitted to import any intoxicants save sacramental wines. This wholesale drug permits are to be lightened, too. These drugists will be permitted to sell alcoholic liquors only to the amount of 10 per cent of their total sales. This 10 per cent is about the normal sale of legitimate drug concerns in normal conditions.

It is true there have been many forgeries of withdrawal permits, and results have resulted in Kentucky and elsewhere. Our verification system in time will control this. Permits of permits have been presented to distilleries and when the distilleries have written for verifications the letters have been intercepted and forged verifications sent back. We found in one case that postal employees had been corrupted and were intercepting letters and returning forged verifications. This has been stopped."

Injunction Refused
Supreme Court Justice Francis Martin in the Bronx denied the application of Christian Erler for a permanent injunction to restrain Police Commissioner Richard E. Enright, Inspector Dominick Henry and others from placing policemen in a restaurant and soft-drink stand at the southwest corner of Third Avenue and 112d Street. Justice Martin said in part:

"It appears from affidavits that the police have made six arrests in this restaurant, so-called. Although the plaintiff has succeeded in dismissing these proceedings, it is quite evident, as alleged, that the plaintiff is conducting his business in violation of the law."

WOOD MUST RETIRE TO RULE ISLANDS

Committee Fears Precedent in Allowing Active Officer to Govern.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
WASHINGTON.—The administration bill designed to authorize Major General Wood to become governor general of the Philippines without retiring as an active officer of the army, was laid on the table Friday by the house military committee, without a record vote. Committee members were said to have held it would be a dangerous precedent to establish.

Practically all committee members were reported to have favored tabling the measure, which makes it certain that the bill will not come to a vote in the house.

No criticism of General Wood was expressed at the committee session. It was said, members agreeing, he would make an excellent governor and should accept President Harding's offer. The opinion was reported to be equally general, however, that it would be a generous precedent to permit army officers, without resigning their commissions, to accept civilian posts.

General Wood, it was argued, should retire from the army if he wished to accept the island post.

FAVOR 60 CHANGES IN TAX MEASURE

Proprietary Medicines Freed of Assessment in Committee.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
WASHINGTON.—Elimination of taxes on proprietary medicines was agreed upon Friday by the house ways and means committee, which approved more than 60 changes in the republican tax bill.

Subsequently the majority members of the committee voted to reduce the tax on cereal beverages from the proposed six cents a gallon to four cents, and bring fire and marine insurance companies under the 12 1/2 per cent corporation income tax on the same basis as life insurance companies.

Democrats for Change
Democratic members avowed understood to have made the fight for the change in the tax on proprietary medicines. Representative Garner of Texas proposed that the levy of five per cent on such manufactures be cut to one-tenth of one per cent, and accepted a suggestion of Representative Timberland, republican, Colorado, that the entire tax be removed.

One of the principal amendments approved Friday by the whole committee provides for creation of a tax investigation commission which would require into:

Effect on the federal revenues of tax exempt state and municipal securities.

Effect of existing differences in law between the federal taxation of individuals and partnerships and of corporations.

The taxation of expenditures and the reduction of the tax rates upon savings, as means for relieving income stimulating savings and redistributing the burdens of taxation.

The effects of income and profits taxes upon the accumulation and investment of liquid capitals.

The commission would make yearly reports to both the president and congress. It would consist of nine members, three senators and three members of the house, appointed by the president, and three representatives of the house appointed by the president.

Exempt Charity Donations
The majority also approved an amendment exempting from taxation corporations and individuals who, provided they do not exceed four per cent of the corporation's net income. Under another change, the proposed five per cent manufacturing tax to be substituted for the so-called luxury and business taxes, would not apply on goods already contracted for.

These changes in the bill will be taken up Saturday by the full committee. Meantime, the house went ahead Friday with consideration of amendments framed Thursday by the majority and approved Friday by the whole committee.

CARDS ON TABLE IN IRISH PARLEY, COMMONS IS TOLD

ENGLAND HAS CONCEDED ALL POSSIBLE, SAYS LLOYD GEORGE.

TERMS ARE FINAL Nothing Withheld, Is Assertion; Hopes for Goodwill of Ireland.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
LONDON.—The British government, declared Premier Lloyd George, Friday, in making its settlement proposals to Ireland, had decided on putting the whole of its terms into the letter Lord Darnley De Valera, without keeping anything back, and the sequel had proved, he said, that it was right in adopting that course.

He had heard no suggestions from any part of the world except Ireland, he remarked, that the proposals had gone to the limit of possible concession.

"I want to make it clear," continued the premier, "that the government did not put forth haggling terms, but put forward everything they could possibly concede to purchase peace, and the price will be the Irish people, in Ireland itself, so far as I can see, doubt is not so much as to terms but as to whether the government really means them."

"This is the question of working out the terms of the settlement, not a changing of the terms. The outline cannot be altered nor the basis changed."

Mr. George Sturges, in view of the fact that the house is about to separate and the fact that very disquieting statements have been made and even of a few disloyal acts, we are bound as a government to take thought of all possible contingencies, however unpleasant.

"The first is the possibility of an attack on the basis of the settlement."

TALKINS HERE TELLS OF PLANS

Increase Facilities as Soon as Business Improves—Not This Year.

"As soon as financial conditions allow and the demands for improvements will be made to the roundhouse and yards of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway at Janesville."

This statement credited to R. M. Caulkins, vice-president of the C. M. & St. P. railway, was quoted Friday by Lucian O. Holman, manager of the local Chamber of Commerce, following a two hour interview with the railroad executive at Chicago, Thursday.

"Janesville has first place when it comes to any improvements to be made by the St. Paul, and that place is to be retained, Mr. Caulkins promised me when I spoke with him," declared Mr. Holman. "The purpose of my talk with him was not to learn whether this city will be considered first when any changes are to be made."

"The St. Paul line is very pleased with the big business in freight that it is doing at Janesville," continued Mr. Holman. "In fact, Mr. Caulkins was surprised that there is so much business here in the Rock river valley considering the industrial conditions in this section. He declared that the Janesville business is as good as any place on its lines."

"Shipping conditions are good the country over," Mr. Caulkins told me. But he is dissatisfied with the freight rates and declared that there is too much interference by the government. There is so much red tape to go through in any readjustments desired through the Interstate Commerce commission that it takes an eternity too long."

Mr. Caulkins said he is more flexible rates. On this point he cited rates on potatoes and hay which under present rulings, are the same all over the country. As a result places that need potatoes cannot get them except at great cost. That the rates are too high, he explained, are rates that vary with the locality so that only what the traffic will bear will be put into effect.

"Costs of operating the roads are still too high, according to the vice-president. He had nothing to say, however, with respect to wages."

No improvements now. In regard to any improvements to be made at Janesville, he informed me that it would not be during the next year. What money Mr. Caulkins has been able to borrow in Europe from where he was expected to return Friday morning, will go into renewing the roadbed and buying new rolling stock, which were not kept up under government control. Other improvements than those that have to come out of profits, and I gathered that there is not much profit in the way things have been going."

"In regard to general business conditions, Mr. Caulkins declared that they will all continue as bright for the rest of the winter."

Will Speak Here. Promise from the vice-president to come to Janesville and speak at a formal meeting next winter was given to Mr. Holman.

Considerable information was given in the Chamber secretary for use in an address he is to make before the National Association of Commercial Organization secretaries when they convene in annual convention at New Orleans in October.

commission Friday. Farmers will be compelled to sell and take a loss, he said, to meet long deferred debts. The testimony was given in connection with the investigation of rates on grain and hay in western states.

Unless carriers reduce the rates on grain, however, the movement will be curtailed greatly after this year, because many farmers are abandoning their farms, Mr. Prickett said.

In calculating future freight rates, the commission should figure on an increased grain movement during the next few years, provided freight rates are reduced, the witness contended. He presented figures on car earnings of wheat to show that the movement of wheat is more profitable to the carriers than many other basic commodities.

W. S. Hanson, a Utah farmer and banker, said farmers in his state exhausted their credit at the banks which, as a rule, are not forcing liquidation as they know it would bring about even more serious conditions.

GREAT SCOUTS AND WHAT THEY DID TO BECOME FAMOUS

The Gazette will begin in a few days a great series of stories that will be enjoyed by old and young. Every Boy Scout will want to read these tales of Great Scouts.

Do You Know?

How Buffalo Bill and Wild Bill got their names? Who was the "Edo" of the Plains? and how he got his name? Who was the last man to see General Custer alive? Who were the original "Rough Riders"? That a half-breed negro Indian and that his tribesman poisoned him to keep his spirit with them when he wanted to return to civilization? That about once a year an emigrant train from the Indians by "scalping" himself. Who was the "Death Wind of the Delawares"? Who was the "American Mole"? Who was the "White Chief of the Pawnees"? That one great scout was a poet, another a painter and another a playwright? The story of Buffalo Bill, the undaunted of the West? That a South Sea Islander was General Crook's favorite scout? What was the strangest duel ever fought in America? Who was the "American Ulysses"? Who were the "Bloody Buccaneers"?

The Author Knows.

These stories were written by one who has made a special study of it since the day of his boyhood, when he, too, was stirred by the ambition to be a scout, game hunter and Indian fighter. Perhaps you once ran away from home resolved to become a terror to the Indians and then ran back again when night fell and the owls began to hoot. If the vast array of boys who did just that could have been mobilized and directed, they would have settled the Indian problem.

Read a few of these true tales by Elmo Scott-Watson and realize how completely facts outdistance fiction. It is a series which will create the maximum amount of interest—something everyone will enjoy reading.

Begin in Gazette.

The Gazette will begin this series in a few days. With the story page for the first of the series. Cut them out and put them in a scrap book. They will make a valuable volume. This is another fine feature that the Gazette will bring daily to some readers and is one of the reasons why the Gazette is the complete and unusual newspaper.

Following completion of an extensive course in medicine, Dr. Aubrey Pember, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Pember, 103 South Jackson street, has returned to Janesville to be associated with his father in the Pember-Nuzum clinic. MILTON WANTS TO BE ON HIGHWAY 26

Change Would Cut Off Milton Junction—Hearing Called for Tuesday.

Milton village's demands that state trunk highway 26, Janesville to Port Adkinson and north, be re-routed so that it goes through Milton instead of Milton Junction, will be given on formal recognition by the state highway commission in a public hearing to be held in the village hall at Milton Junction, at 10:30 a. m. next Tuesday. Notice to this effect has been received by County Clerk Howard W. Lee, County Highway Commissioner Charles R. Moore and other officials of the commission. The little village hall is expected to be packed for the hearing, as Milton's citizens are determined to show real facts why the change should be made while residents of the Junction, on the other hand, are just as determined that route 26 be continued as it is now laid out. Citizens of both towns recently realized the benefits accruing from being on the great trunk highway system of Wisconsin. Milton citizens have joined in a petition that the change be made.

Should the petition be acted upon favorably, the change would be made just four miles north of Janesville where motorists would take a right fork in the road to the left. This would take them through Milton village and northward to join with the present 26 highway at a point two miles north of Milton. The suggestion has been offered by some of the residents of Milton and Milton Junction, be marked 26, leaving it optional to the motorist which one to take.

CIVIL WAR VETS OF 3 COUNTIES MEET

Jefferson—Civil war soldiers in the counties of Jefferson, Walworth and Waukesha, counted held their annual reunion here Thursday. At the business meeting in the afternoon, President E. C. Helmstreet and the other officers were re-elected and their reports were received from the posts in the three counties.

A resolution, opposing in strong terms the proposition to remove the veterans from the Milwaukee harbor and asking the Wisconsin delegation in congress to use all possible proper means to make permanent the temporary suspension of the order to send the old comrades away, was adopted. At noon the veterans gave the soldiers' 250 in number—a free dinner.

At the afternoon session, brief addresses were made by the department commander, J. M. Snyder, a member of his staff, J. F. Carlo, and others. Following that came a surprise to the veterans by 150 Jefferson county soldiers, conducted by the county superintendent, who marched into the courthouse, sang several old army songs, and at the close of the session, died past the soldiers and shook hands with them.

have been, and still are, a common medium of speculation. At first glance, they appear attractive. The hopefulness of the average speculator in marks, however, is based simply on confidence. That Germany will resume its place among the nations of the world. But granting that this will happen, there are other factors to be considered, which convince us that the possibilities of profit are not nearly as great as they seem, and the chances of loss are greater than ordinarily supposed.

Drop in, and we will gladly discuss this matter with you.

MALPRACTICE SUIT DOCTOR WINS IN

Grimm Denies $1,500 Judgment for Darius Girl, Amending Verdict.

Complete reversal of the findings of the jury in a special verdict for the plaintiff in the celebrated malpractice case of Emma Taylor vs. Dr. R. R. Grimm, both of Darius, is made by Judge George Grimm in a decision handed down Friday in Rock county circuit court.

The court denies the plaintiff's motion for judgment against the physician for $1,500 as was recommended by the jury which decided the case in circuit court here at the last regular term.

The decision brings to an end, temporarily, at least, lengthy litigation begun in Walworth county and later brought here for a new trial, although it is not to be taken to a circuit court.

The case was based on an injury to Miss Taylor's right arm. It was charged that Dr. Grimm was negligent and error in attending the case.

A jury in Walworth county circuit court found in favor of Miss Taylor for $5,000. A motion for a new trial being granted, the case was tried before Judge Grimm here with a jury bringing in a special verdict and recommendations for $1,500 as compensation to Miss Taylor and $500 to her father for her loss of limb.

Charles E. Pierce and E. H. Sprague were attorneys for the plaintiff and William R. Curke and E. Morrissey for the defendant.

Although Janesville made a strong bid for the convention, the Wisconsin Rapids succeeded in landing it. Portage also wished it, but due to the fact that the convention has never been held in Janesville and Portage in previous years the upstate town was successful.

Prominent citizens of Sheboygan addressed the convention and a tour of the city was made under the direction of the Chamber of Commerce.

OVERTON NEW HEAD OF GUERNSEY ASS'N

Breeders Hold Annual Meeting at Kellogg Farm, South of City.

R. K. Overton, prominent La. Prairie farmer, was elected president of the Rock County Guernsey Breeders' association in annual meeting Thursday afternoon at the M. S. Kellogg farm. Mr. Overton succeeds Theodore Clark, Edgerton, P. A. Kresen was elected vice president, and M. S. Kellogg re-elected secretary-treasurer. All members of the executive committee—C. L. Borg, Brodhead, O. E. Uhling, Atton, and Dr. W. J. Dunn, Janesville—were chosen to serve another year.

More than a score of well known farmers attended the meeting. County Agent R. T. Glasco, in a short address, brought several issues before the attention of the men.

"In order for the farmer to succeed it is absolutely necessary that he stick to his organization," said Mr. Glasco. "I would suggest that during the coming months some steps be taken to increase the membership of the association. The farmers' sons should be urged to take an interest in it. If possible a Guernsey calf club should be organized."

Mr. Glasco told of the benefits derived from the use of limestone and stated that he expected more than 10,000 tons of lime would be used in Rock county alone this year.

A general discussion of the milk situation followed, led by Mr. Overton and Mr. Glasco. Both men pleaded for unity feeling that conditions will be bettered in the near future.

A new butterfat test was illustrated by W. E. Gray, Stoughton. The new test is said to compare well with the Babcock test.

FARMERS MUST PAY FOR FIREMEN'S AID

No More Trips Out of City Limits Unless $5 a Mile Is Paid—Murphy.

Farmers calling upon the Janesville fire department for aid in case of emergency will be required in the future to pay at the rate of $5 for each mile the trucks travel from the city limits to reach the blaze.

This announcement was made Friday by Chief Con. J. Murphy, who explained that it was only an accommodation for the department to go outside of the city limits.

"The payment of the fee is not to hurt the man who really needs help but to put a stop to unnecessary calls into the city," the chief declared.

"Several times we have gone out several miles in the country only to find small fires that the farmers themselves could have extinguished. In some instances the fires are put out before we get there."

The fire department made six trips out of the city limits in 1921, and has made five so far this year.

The money to be realized from this new system will go into the firemen's relief fund, the chief stated. This is a fund to protect department members in case of illness, accident, or any emergency.

Judge Refuses to Order Arrest of Jack Dempsey

Ocean Grove, N. J.—The first of a series of rulings designed to aid in bringing about repeal of the Hurley act, permitting boxing bouts in New Jersey, was held here Friday. By the International Reform bureau, to take effect on the 1st of September, the act is to be repealed. The bureau, which has been trying to cause punishment of Jack Dempsey, George Carpentier, Tex Rickard and everybody else that had anything to do with the fight on July 3, last, another round Thursday when Common Pleas Judge Dougherty of Hudson county, refused to issue warrants for the fighters and their managers, sought under an anti-prize fight act, passed by the New Jersey legislature in 1918.

Would Go Himself. "If I should issue such warrants," said the judge, "I would have to take Dempsey by the hand and march to jail with him. Judge Blair of this court and myself attended the fight together. He could be arrested for aiding and abetting in the promotion of the fight if I took this course."

Judge Dougherty ruled the 1918 act had been superseded by the Hurley act. He told the bureau representatives he would not be inclined to issue warrants if complaints were filed under the Hurley act, saying he thought the matter should be submitted to a grand jury.

Main Direct Sets New State Mark at Monroe for 3-Heat Race, :07 3/4

Pounding the half mile track at the Green county fair at Monroe, Thursday and covering the mile in :07 3/4, Main Direct, McGuire Driving, set up a new Wisconsin record for a three heat race. Horses that figured large in the winnings here last week on "The Lexington of the North" annexed first places in the opening day at Monroe.

Pat Pointer, DeOrre up, which made a new mark for the mile on the half mile track here last week in 2:19 1/4, in the 2:12 pace, pushed Main Direct hard but failed to do better than three seconds. The race was the fastest in the Monroe meet for the week, the 2:10 pace.

Frost Is Winner. Arlie Frost, Monroe's "own," drove Abdella Watts to victory in straight heats in the 2:30 trot. Abdella annexed the 2:30 trot here.

Young Dean, who won back his popularity here last week after losing it for a while on account of a fist fight for which he was fined $100, drove Jim Woodman to an easy win in the 2:25 pace, making his best time in 2:13 1/4. He captured the 2:25 event here last Saturday, but was forced to go five heats to make it.

Alma Riser (Sackler) which was second in the 2:20 trot in Jansville, captured the 2:23 trot.

Two Big Days Yet. Friday's program calls for a 2:16 trot, purse $1,000; 2:13 pace, purse $500, and 3-year-old trot. On Saturday, the following are carded: 2:11 pace, purse $1,000; free for all, purse $800; and 2:18 trot, purse $500.

Hundreds of automobile parties filed through the square Friday morning on their way to the fair. With wonderful weather, it is expected that a crowd of between 12,000 and 15,000 will attend Friday, and an equal number on Saturday.

Bent Last Year. Announcement was made Friday that the 1922 fair will be held at Monroe, Wis., on the grounds of the Green county fair.

Faith Wins at Oshkosh

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Oshkosh, Wis.—A new type of craft, compromise between the class A and class C racing yachts, was strongly advocated at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the International and Lake Yachting association Thursday evening. Such a type of yacht, built along specific lines to be determined by the organization was urged as being cheaper, thereby attracting sportsmen of moderate means. The Marconi rig was also criticized as being expensive. No definite action was taken, it being recommended that no change be made until the present yachts shall have outlived their usefulness.

The location of the regatta for 1922 will be decided by the board of directors at the meeting in October. Dr. O. L. Schmidt of Lake Geneva, and C. C. Boyce of Minnetonka presented strong bids. While Milwaukee was also suggested and urged, that invitation will probably not be accepted because of fear that the new type of yachts would not stand the heavy seas and weather which is likely to be met with on Lake Michigan. Directors elected Thursday evening will select the officers at a meeting this afternoon. The new directors are: J. F. O'Brien, Oshkosh; W. C. Burton, Minnetonka; Dr. O. L. Schmidt, Lake Geneva; Stephen Davis, Kenosha; and Henry A. Meyer, Pine Lake.

A Marconi rig for light weather sailing was just the thing for Faith. Oshkosh yacht in Thursday's race in the inland Lake Yachting association. With John Buckstaff as skipper she easily won in class A and as a result is again in first place for the championship with Blue Heron of Minnetonka second in the competition for the grand prize cup.

FREE A 10-Shave Tube of Palmolive Shaving Cream At the Stores listed below

1,000 Men Were Asked "What is your conception of the ideal shaving cream?"

For many years we have been making the ideal toilet soap. We blended palm and olive oils—the balmy consistency of age-old fame. And millions of people have adopted this Palmolive Soap.

Six years ago we started to embody this blend in a shaving cream. And the first step was to ask a thousand men the virtues they wanted in it.

These were their requirements:

First, a quick shave

Nine-tenths of these men wanted quick shaves, above all. They did not like long brushing, finger rubbing, hot towels and delay.

So a cream was made which acts in one minute. Within that time the average beard absorbs 15% of water. And that is enough. This result is due to almost instant oil removal—the oil that coats the beard.

Next, liberal lather

Next, they wanted liberal lather. And they wanted a little of the soap to go far.

So we developed a cream which multiplies itself 250 times in lather. A bit on the brush—only one-half gram—suffices for a shave. A single tube of Palmolive Shaving Cream serves for 152 shaves.

Lather that remains

Then they wanted a lather which maintains itself without drying on the face.

So we perfected a lather which maintains its creamy fullness for ten minutes. That is ample time. This lather does not need replacement.

A soothing soap

They wanted a soothing shaving cream. They wanted a lubricated razor, no irritation, a pleasant after-effect.

The best was ever known to those ends is the blend of palm and olive oils. The lather is a lotion in itself.

130 creams were made

We are experts in soap making. But it took us 18 months to attain this ideal shaving cream. 130 formulas were made up and tested. Thus step by step these superlatives were attained, and the best shaving cream in existence.

Now we ask you to test it. Learn in how many ways it excels. It will lead the way to a lifetime of delightful shaves. Present the coupon for a trial tube.

AGREEMENT WITH GERMANY IS SEEN

Protocol to Precede Formal Negotiation of Peace Treaty in Washington.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.

Copyright 1921, by Janeville Gazette.

Washington.—A special agreement in the nature of a protocol will precede the formal negotiation of a treaty of peace with Germany.

This agreement will not be submitted to the senate. It will be a sort of modus vivendi or temporary arrangement which will permit commercial relations with Germany to be resumed immediately and enable the president to issue his long delayed proclamation of peace.

The agreement will be brief in character and along general lines. It will preserve America's rights under the armistice and subsequent treaties closing the European war, and will form the basis for a formal treaty eventually.

The United States government has made a special request of the German government that with respect to the agreement shall be kept absolutely secret. The reason for the injunction of secrecy is not divulged here.

Members of the senate foreign relations committee have learned informally of the progress of the exchanges between the German government and our state department and they predict that the formula adopted by President Harding and Secretary Hughes will be received with satisfaction, because for the next three to six months at least America will be able to send consuls into Germany and establish commercial relations, while the more tedious task of meticulously safeguarding American rights under the armistice and economic clauses of the Versailles treaty will be carried on. Eventually the new treaty with Germany will, of course, have to be submitted to the senate.

Politically speaking, the postponement of formal peace negotiations with Germany will assist President Harding to the extent that as time goes on the bitterness over the old treaty may gradually vanish, and if it is found essential to paraphrase whole sections of the Versailles treaty, opposition may not arise so strong as it would have from those senators who have announced that not a particle of the Versailles treaty will they ever approve.

The department of state maintains its cloak of secrecy on the theory that the negotiations of a public affair. Many such agreements or conventions have been negotiated in the past, like the Lansing-Littell agreement for instance, which remained a mystery until the day the text was formally agreed upon and announced.

Approved by Germany. World received here from Berlin indicates that the Germans approve of the American plan and that the German reichstag is being consulted, so that all political parties there will in a sense be committed to the pledges made in the special agreement with the United States. It will be recalled that China and Germany have a special agreement, too, inasmuch as China refused to ratify the Versailles treaty. Germany, however, in negotiating a special agreement with China absolutely declined to reaffirm in general terms the Versailles treaty since it meant another acknowledgment of responsibility for the war, and it was stated officially by the

Women's Wage Report Made for the State

Madison.—A tabulation of reports received by the Industrial commission under the provisions of the minimum wage law from 515 employers of women and minors shows that of 32,589 women and minor employees only 5.1% received less than 25c per hour last May and 15.5% less than 25c per hour.

Of the employees paid less than 25c per hour the largest number were in small towns. Of the women and minor employees in factories in towns with a population of 3,000 and over, 15.0% earned less than 25c an hour, while in factories in smaller towns 32.5% of the women and minor employees were in this group. In stores 55% of women and minor employees received less than 25c an hour in the larger cities.

No less than 75% of all employees paid less than 25c an hour were minors, and nearly half of these were under 17 years of age. Only 11% of the adult women employees earned less than 25c an hour, while 67% earned 30c and over per hour. On the other hand 48% of all normal children were paid less than 25c an hour.

The 515 firms from whom reports were received by the industrial commission employed 53,965 men as compared with 15,079 adult women and 17,612 minors. The percentage of women employees was greatest in the textile industries, where men constituted only 22% of the total number of employees. Women also greatly exceeded the number of men employed in millinery and straw goods manufacturing, in cleaning and dyeing establishments, in candy factories and stores.

Of the minors reported upon 4,428 were permit children. The largest number of these were employed in hosiery and knit goods, candy, paper boxes, stamped metal goods and in stores.

The most common hours of labor in factories employing women were 8 to 8 1/2 hours per day during the first five days of the week. One hundred fifty-eight of the 515 plants reporting fell in this group, while the next greatest group was that of the plants working 9 to 3 1/2 hours per day. Saturday half holidays were enjoyed by more than two-thirds of all women employees in the state.

The reports furnished the commission also show that in many plants women are employed on shorter shifts than men doing this kind of work.

German government such an act might prejudice Germany's chances to get the Versailles pact revised. There is a hint that similar hitches have occurred in the negotiations with the United States which have already taken more than five weeks.

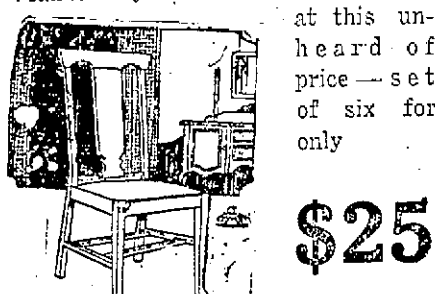

Professor Lack of Knowledge. Although the German government has seen fit to take all the political parties into its confidence, the democrats in the United States senate profess to be absolutely unacquainted with the character of the negotiations with Germany. It is said that some members of the senate foreign relations committee are opposed to the holding of any formal session at which information from the executive branch of the government would be vouchsafed. They contend that it would be unwise to give information to their political opponents. On the other hand, those senators who are on intimate personal terms with the folks at the executive end of the government are finding it difficult in learning just what is going on.
